

Outsourcing Solutions, Inc. (OSi) Announces Senior Vice President

June 1, 2008 – Outsourcing Solutions Inc. (OSi) is pleased to announce that Anthony (Tony) Incardona has accepted the position of Managing Partner and Senior Vice President. Andy Renfroe, OSi CEO and Managing Partner, states, "I am not sure there is anyone more qualified in the industry than Tony to help OSi continue its record-setting growth and client development. Tony has been in this industry for over 26 years and is very well respected industry wide."

Mr. Incardona comes to OSi from Nuance/Dictaphone where he was Vice President of ichart™ Managed Services. His position had national responsibility for launching Dictaphone's internet-based ASP solution that served the overall clinical documentation market including acute care hospitals, large clinics, and medical transcription service organizations (MTSO's) as well as development of the PSP managed services groups. Mr. Incardona has spent the past 26 years of his career helping hospitals and other healthcare organizations achieve their objective of enhancing and improving the creation and management of patient information. His impressive career at Dictaphone/Nuance reflects his dedication to the healthcare industry and his importance as OSi's Senior Vice President.

OSi President and Managing Partner, Rowland Milam, credits OSi's success to developing a customer-oriented team that has been well received in the marketplace. Rowland states, "Tony's knowledge, experience, customer focus and vision will be a great addition to the OSi Team."

OSi has been recognized by Inc. 500 Magazine, a national business journal for growing private companies, as one of the 500 fastest growing private companies in 2004 and made the top Inc. 5000 list for 2005, 2006 & 2007.
